UNT Library Resources for Graduate Students

Your Subject Librarian:

Librarians are here to help you with your research!
To find your subject librarian, see: library.unt.edu/subject-librarians/
Email your Librarian or arrange an appointment with them by filling out this form: http://tinyurl.com/nx3ryqa

Journal Articles:
To find journal articles, go to the UNT Libraries homepage: library.unt.edu, and choose the tab “Databases”.

- If you know the title of the journal database that you need to search, then type its name in the first search box.
- If you don’t know the name of the database, type your subject in the second “Browse Subjects” box.

*If accessing off campus, you will be asked for your EUID and EUID password before entering the database.

Books Available Through the UNT Libraries:
Search the UNT Library Catalog (“Books & More” tab on homepage), or https://discover.library.unt.edu/to find books.

Books Published on Your Topic Not Available Through UNT Libraries:
To find more books published on your topic, search the World Catalog or WorldCat: https://discover.library.unt.edu/catalog/b2247936
Any books without a UNT Libraries logo can be requested to be borrowed through Interlibrary Loan (ILL) by clicking on the UNT Interlibrary Loan link in their record, and then you will be taken to the ILL Login page.

Interlibrary Loan:
Books, book chapters, journal articles and dissertations/theses not owned by the UNT Libraries can be requested through our borrowing program Interlibrary Loan. http://tinyurl.com/pyzm87p
If you don’t have an Interlibrary Loan account, create one here: https://tinyurl.com/2s3mwp57
Dissertations and Theses:
Use the Dissertations and Theses guide https://guides.library.unt.edu/dissertations_theses to find theses and dissertations. Dissertations and theses that are not full-text can be requested through Interlibrary Loan.

RefWorks:
RefWorks https://discover.library.unt.edu/catalog/b3146178 is a free citation manager offered to UNT students from the UNT Libraries. RefWorks can make organizing citations and creating a bibliography for your dissertation much easier.

RefWorks Library Guide: guides.library.unt.edu/rwnew. This guide includes short videos on how to make a RefWorks account, and install and use Write-N-Cite. Write-N-Cite lets you insert in-text citations while writing.

How to Do a Literature Review:
guides.library.unt.edu/litrw

Graduate Writing Help:
The UNT Libraries have a partnership with the UNT Writing Center and UNT Learning Center to provide graduate writing help and tutoring in the Willis Library. Check the link for hours: library.unt.edu/services/tutoring/.

Workshops from the UNT Libraries:
The UNT Libraries offer several workshops for graduate students, including: Introduction to RefWorks, the Proposal Preparation Workshop for Humanities and Social Sciences, and one for STEM students. The workshops are listed on the Toulouse Graduate School’s events calendar: https://tgs.unt.edu/unt-grad-events.

Graduate Student Lockers in the Library:
The UNT Libraries offer lockers for graduate students: https://library.unt.edu/policies/lockers/

Scholarly Writing Guide:
This guide contains resources on academic writing, writing in the disciplines, style and writing tools, and publishing: https://guides.library.unt.edu/scholarlywriting/intro

Graduate Student Library Advisory Board:
GSLAB provides feedback to improve library services for grads: https://library.unt.edu/student-advisory-board/

Your Library Accounts:
Log into your UNT Library Catalog account to see a list of books you have checked out and to renew them online. Log into your ILLIAD account to see your Interlibrary Loan, Distance Learning Materials, and Delivery Requests. library.unt.edu/accounts-login/